

12/13/2010 - DAIMaround ? Poster

A stream of flashing white is blasting a complex style of colours and shapes. The typeface of silent shades of grey and screaming orange is shattering, bursting at the energetic idea, with which DAIM is giving visual strength to this motif. A strength that is literally going beyond its scope. Made after a new procedure, the impressive high-quality print maintains a very special colour brilliance.

flat varnish, size: 70 x 50 cm / 19.68? x 27.55?, 150 g/m² paper
